DETAILED ACTION

Amendment

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the amendment filed 14 June 2004.

Examiner's Amendment

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the specification:

Regarding page 1: After the title, the heading --Cross-Reference to Related Applications-- has been inserted. Below that, the following text has been inserted: -- This application claims foreign priority to Japanese application 2002-335295, filed 19 November 2002--.

In the claims:

Regarding claim 2, line 4: The “;” (semi-colon) at the end of the sentence has been changed to --. (period) in order for the sentence to be grammatically correct.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-3, 6, 9, 12-13, and 15 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Although the prior art of Shepherd and May teach card processing systems that generally teach the use of pairs of rollers and sensors in order to receive cards into a transaction machine, the best prior art fails to specifically teach the actuation of the pairs of rollers with the sensors in a specific pattern when both taking in the card and ejecting the card. In addition, prior art in the form of Deguchi et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,624,107, from hereinafter "Deguchi") also teaches a general method of sensing a document and moving rollers to bring in and eject the document (see Figure 27, col 31), but does not specifically teach the multiple steps of movement. Hence the best prior art of record fails to teach the invention as set forth in claims 1-3, 6, 9, 12-13, and 15 and the examiner can find no teaching of the specific card processor apparatus, nor reasons within the cited prior art or on her own to combine the elements of these references other than the applicant's own reasoning to fully encompass the current pending claims. In addition, see applicant's reasoning in amendment/response filed 14 June 2004.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
